

Vicara “DOMINO ” Spumante Brut Rosé

The label of our Domino features a cartoon by Pulitzer Prize winner Rube Goldberg, depicting a convoluted domino effect culminating in a popped bottle. The illustration ironically describes the heterogeneity, the intricate mechanism, and the creativity behind the creation of each wine. But "domino effect" also has another meaning: once you open a bottle, you can't help but open another. How did we get permission to use the cartoon? Giuseppe met the author's granddaughter and went to knock on the door of her house in New York. She agreed on condition that we send her 10 boxes of Dominoes once a year! Our rosé presents itself with a delicate pink color, tending towards orange. On the nose, it expresses a fine and delicate bouquet, with pleasant floral and fruity notes. On the palate, it is dry and pleasantly fresh. In short, it is irresistible: after all, it is a child of Grignolino.
